AJAX THINKS BERNE WOULD RUN OUT ON HIM; ANXIOUS FOR MATCH

Victor Ajax, Goldfield wrestler, says unpleasant things about "Tonopah wrestlers." William Berne, the Russian, swung into the Bonanza office the other day and said he'd meet any good man, winner take all. He'll meet Ajax on that basis. Berne looks good, and he has newspaper clippings that indicate he has proven he's no dub. Ajax wants Berne to lick "his man" first and then, having proven his ability, meet Ajax for a side bet and winner take all. Perhaps Ajax wants to see just how good Berne is before he tackles him.

Ajax's contemptuous letter follows: Editor Tonopah Bonanza.
Dear Sir:—In today's issue of The Bonanza I notice that one William Berne, who claims to be a Russian gladiator, expresses a desire to meet Victor Ajax in a wrestling match. Please permit me to state that for the past two years a number of so-called wrestlers holding forth in Tonopah have from time to time issued challenges to wrestle me, but when the time came to put up the coin to bind a match they invariably "welched." First it was a Pleasant Smith, then a Hacksmith, then a so-called Russian Lion, then a Terrible Turk. Every one of the above wrestlers slunk away and left no address when I announced my willingness to meet them.

I know nothing about this Mr. William Berne, "The Russian Gladiator." I am the undefeated lightweight champion wrestler of the world—my record proves it. I don't care to meet and "dub." I have a man who will engage in a wrestling match with this "Russian Gladiator." Mrs. Berne, and if Mr. Berne defeats my man I will then wrestle your "Russian Gladiator" at Greco-Roman or catch-as-catch-can style for $500 or $1,000 a side and the gate receipts, winner take all. Very truly yours,
VICTOR AJAX.
Champion Lightweight Wrestler.

GRIER IS FOREMAN OF THE NEW GRAND JURY ORGANIZED TODAY

The new grand jury was organized and charged by District Judge Averill this morning. Harry Grier was made foreman. The judge's instructions comprise eight pages of sections of the code as to the rights and duties of the grand jury, and conclude with: "I now call your attention to an act providing for the examination and auditing of the books and accounts of certain officers, contained in Sections 2855 to 2750, both inclusive, of the Revised Laws of Nevada, and especially to Section 2557, reading: 'The reports of such accountants shall, by order of the district judge, be laid before the grand jury of each of the counties of this state for an examination of them, and to take such action upon such report as they shall deem necessary.'"

PENITENTIARY AND FINE FOR FAGHN

Mike Faghn, convicted of arson in the second degree, was this morning sentenced by Judge Averill to serve not less than one year and not more than ten years in the state penitentiary. He was also fined $1,000. Faghn burned a hay stack belonging to Edward Turner on the night of September 2.

U. S. INSPECTOR HERE CHECKS COAL SUPPLY

H. S. Greathouse, traffic inspector for the district car service of the United States fuel administration, inspected Tonopah's supply of coal today. He found one carload which was in possession of the Millers company. The National Fuel company, he found, had about 1,200 pounds, and that completed Tonopah's total. Greathouse has traveled over the state. This afternoon he said: "Tonopah has less coal in proportion to her population than any community I have yet investigated."

Several cars are on the way here and Greathouse will make every effort to prevent any delay in their delivery. He departed this afternoon for Goldfield.

A carload of coal is scheduled to arrive for Wittenberg tomorrow morning.

AMUSEMENTS

WILLIAM DESMOND AT THE BUTLER.
The Desmond McKim fight is a feature in "Master of His Home," the Triangle production which will be the attraction at the Butler tonight. Much has been said of motion picture fights, fakes and otherwise, but there are not enough superlatives in the dictionary to describe the scrap put up by William Desmond and Robert McKim in "Master of His Home." Director Edwards was determined to make this fight different, and the result was a clear, fast and furious fistic encounter in which the first blow sent McKim spinning across the room, and not a semi-wrestling match where the participants roll about the floor through several hundred feet of film. After Desmond landed the first punch he picked McKim up and hurled him against a nearby desk with a force that will bring a gasp from any audience. Of course, for the purpose of the story, it was necessary for Desmond to land the telling punch, but after the two battlers got into the true spirit of the thing it looked as if the scrap would be declared a draw. It is of short duration, but is fast and furious while it lasts, and the patrons are promised an exhibition that will keep them on the edge of their seats with excitement.

Tomorrow, "The Slacker," the play that sounds the bugle call of patriotism. It is absolutely one of the very best pictures of its kind that has ever been shown upon a screen.

NEW TODAY

"What Wonderful Gossards!"
"Never Before Have I Seen Such Beautiful Corsets"

You will say that, too, when you see our new Fall Gossards. Wonderful corsets—wonderful values. No woman can afford—particularly in times when wise economy is more than a watch-word—to ignore the savings offered by these Gossards—savings without sacrifice—because the simplest gown is given grace, distinction, vogue, over the fashionable silhouette of a Gossard. The most expensive gown loses in effect if worn over an ill-fitting corset.

Remember, please, that the Gossard—the original front-lacing corset—gently and with perfect comfort molds the figure into the new straight back and hip lines and smartly indicated waist. We have the Gossard that will enable you to become the ideal of your type—one of the nine ideal figures.

Gossards at $2.50, $3.50 and $5.00

Knowing how all prices have advanced you will be especially impressed with the incomparable Gossards at $2.50, $3.50 and $5.00. At one of these prices you can find the corset perfectly adapted to your individual requirements—designed by the same genius which causes master gown designers the world over to specify "Gossard" as the foundation for their efforts.

Hundreds of thousands of women in all parts of the United States will buy one of the three Gossards described below within the next few days—one
